STRIKE HELD AS BULLISHARGUMENT

Market's Action Furnishes Evidence That It Has Turned for Substantial Rally.

MATERIAL ADVANCES SHOWN

Cotton Makes New Low Levels, and Foreign War Fails to Advance Wheat.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

New York, September 39.—Action of the stock market to-day furnished convincing evidence that it has definitely furned for a substantial rally. The big shorts have covered and little shorts have thousands of contracts in commission houses showing such losses that they will be forced to cover precipitately before long. Announcement of a strike on the Harriman lines was regarded as a bullish argument, as it will relieve the railroad systems of thous nds employes unnecessary, owing 1 he reduced volume of traffic. The system will also save a couple of millions at least, on cancellation of pension rights. New York Central's latest strike was not big, but as a result $1,006,000 was saved by its pension fund.

Practically all stocks showed material net advances. Cotion made new low levels for the year, and the foreign.

New Orleans, La. September 30.—Cotton futures opened barely steady at a loss of $714 points. The close was steady at a net decline of 156 % points. Cables were much lower than due, owing to the hostilities between Italy and Turkey, which had more effect on the English market to-day than yesterday. The October option was forced below the 16c market to 295. Good surpport was offered the market to 9.25. Good surpport was offered the market to 9.25 host on the month of 31 points in the crop, but only served to check the decline the early trading. At the end of the first half hour of business prices were 136 15 points under yesterday's close. Spot cotton, quiet and unchanged; middling, 10 3-16c. Sales on the holfers, 44,575 hais; stock, 33,117 bals. Clesing bids: Apple 16 bales and 1.700 to arrive. Receipts. Local Market Quotations.

from $2 to $11, while the highest price paid for new tobacco was $30. Indications for the 1911 crop are that some will be quite colory, while some will be coarse and unde-sirable. Taken as a whole, though, the out-look is very bright for a fine crop of the weed.

The weather is fine for cutting and cur-ing, and about one-third of the crop is still in the field.

Farmville Tobacco Market.
Farmville, Va., September 3a-Primings continue in good demand, with prices slightly higher, several lots selling as high as $6.55 per 100 pounds.
The offerings for the week amounted to 13,369, making a total to date of $44,65 pounds.

Rocky Mount Tobacco Market.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Rocky Mount, N. C., September 20, The receipts of lost tobacco show an increase this week, amounting to more than 250,000 nounds. The proportion of tips and stall-cured tobacco, has also increased, though the larger share of the breaks still consist of primings and nondescript lost and lugs. Frices are full bigh, and on the better sellings of less have advanced, bright less soiled as high as 350. The medium grades are holding their own, while common tobaccos are as high as they have been for years.

Tobacco Yield in North Carolina Tobacco Vield in North Carolina.

Raleigh, N. C., September 20—It is estimated by the State Department of Agriculture that the tobacco crop in this State this teason as about an acreage of 60.000, and the yield, 450 pounds per acre. Last season here was an acreage of about 215.000 and a yield of nearly 650 pounds to the acre. The lack of seasons for transplanting cut the acreage, and continued dry conditions after the planting reduced the yield per acre Also, there was serious inroad by will in some important sections of the tobacco belt.

TOBACCO MARKET

Local Sales Still Confined to Primings—Reports from Various Leaf Markets.

The loose leaf tobacco market of Richmond is still in a waiting condition, waiting for the real sun-cured leaf to begin to show up. A warehouseman who has been out in the rural districts, says it will be two or three weeks yet before the farmers commence to offer the better grades of leaf on the warehouse floors in the meantime primings continue to find their way to market in limited quantities.

There were sales at the warehouses on Tuesday and Friday of the past week, but the total offerings did not amount to quite 46,000 pounds. The
